

Save the Dates

The Research and Training Network (RTN)
presents
an Evidence-Informed Webinar™ Series

A Child Welfare Evidence-Informed Webinar™ Series

Webinar™ # 1

Improving Reunification Service Delivery in California: Implications from Two Recent Studies

Presenter: Amy D'Andrade, Ph.D., M.S.W., San Jose State University

Date & Time: Thursday, March 29, 2012 | 10:00 am–11:30 am

Description: Learn about why we need better service delivery models, and what innovative approaches are currently in use in California counties.

Register online by clicking here: <https://www2.gotomeeting.com/register/615636426>

Webinar™ # 2

Signs of Safety: Implementation and Evaluation

Presenters: Susan Brooks, M.S.W., Holly Hatton, Ph.D., Northern California Training Academy and Casey Family Programs

Date & Time: Thursday, April 26, 2012 | 10:00 am–11:30 am

Description: Learn about what people in California are saying and doing to implement and evaluate this new practice in child welfare.

Register online by clicking here: <https://www2.gotomeeting.com/register/172194090>

Webinar™ # 3

Child Maltreatment Fatalities—Risk Factors and Lessons Learned

Presenters: Donna Pence, B.S., and Karissa Hughes, M.S.W., Academy for Professional Excellence

Date & Time: Thursday, June 7, 2012 | 10:00 am–11:30 am

Description: Learn about common variables that may contribute to a higher probability of fatal child maltreatment, including: child risk factors, perpetrator profiles, social worker errors, environmental factors, etc. Lessons learned and practice recommendations will be shared for how child welfare agencies can strengthen child fatality investigations and minimize placing children at risk of extreme harm.

Register online by clicking here: <https://www2.gotomeeting.com/register/660192418>

* NOTE: Free CEUs are offered for each Webinar™.

For more information, please contact Sevaughn Banks at sevaughn@berkeley.edu or 510-643-0226.

Partial funding provided by the California Department of Social Services.