

Save the Date

Summer Institute 2016

June 9–10

Cultivating Partnerships to Support Implementation of the California Child Welfare Core Practice Model

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

Share your expertise!
Submit a workshop proposal.
Proposals due February 29.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS: 2016 TITLE IV-E SUMMER INSTITUTE

WHEN

June 9

8:00 am–6:00 pm

June 10

8:00 am–3:30 pm

WHERE

Hilton Garden Inn San Francisco/Oakland Bay Bridge
Emeryville

REGISTRATION

Registration information will be announced in April.

TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT

CalSWEC will reimburse presenters' travel and lodging expenses. Limited scholarships for travel expenses will be available for participants.

MORE INFORMATION

Jenafir House
jenafirh@berkeley.edu

GOALS

The Title IV-E Summer Institute will provide participants the tools to:

- Identify main elements of the Core Practice Model at the base of child welfare social work practice, education, and training
- Clearly articulate connections between the Title IV-E program and Core Practice Model
- Identify specific action steps to support implementation of the Core Practice Model

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Title IV-E Project Coordinators
- Deans, Directors, and Faculty
- Field Directors
- Field Liaisons
- Agency (CW/Tribal) Directors
- Intern Coordinators
- Field Instructors
- Other Title IV-E Partners

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Howard Himes, M.S.W.

Having dedicated 29 years to providing services to vulnerable children and families, Howard Himes has significant experience in county agency leadership as well as workforce development. Mr. Himes earned his MSW from California State University, Fresno, where he later was an adjunct professor. As Deputy Director and then Director of Fresno County Department of Social Services, he guided implementation of the CAPP (California Partners for Permanency) Program. Recognized for his significant work in Fresno County, Mr. Himes became the Director of the Napa County Health and Human Services Agency, where he will oversee implementation of the county's California Child Welfare Core Practice Model. Mr. Himes also serves on numerous boards and committees that reflect his strong advocacy of effective social services and racial equality.

